Statistics on capacity/bandwidth services (2023 – 2026)

Statistics on Capacity/Bandwidth services

CATEGORY[1]	Jun 2023	Dec 2023	Jun 2024
International Internet Capacity[2]
Total International Internet Capacity (in Mbps)	54,643,600	57,426,600	41,038,700
International Transmission Capacity Owned[3]
Total International Transmission Capacity Owned (in Mbps)	334,283,400	332,866,400	353,602,700
- Submarine Cable (in Mbps)	334,147,900	332,687,100	352,592,600
- Others (in Mbps)	135,500	179,300	1,010,100

All figures are rounded to the nearest hundred.

These telecom statistics are subject to revision from time to time to ensure accuracy.

Footnotes

[1]With effect from Jun 2009, statistics on Capacity/Bandwidth services will be updated on a half-yearly basis every June and December.

[2]International Internet Capacity refers to the total activated bandwidth/capacity owned by operators licensed in Singapore to carry Internet traffic. This figure excludes bandwidth/capacity owned by overseas operators transiting traffic through Singapore.

[3]International transmission capacity refers to the total activated bandwidth/capacity owned by operators licensed in Singapore to provide all forms of international bandwidth/capacity services, including IPLC, international managed data network services, Internet connectivity etc. This figure excludes international transmission capacity owned by overseas operators transiting traffic through Singapore.