

HOUR
OF CODE

An Hour of Fun Specially for Seniors

Heard of Hour of Code™? It is a global movement in almost 200 countries that introduces coding in a fun and simple way in just one hour to all age groups including seniors.

This year in October, Singapore is coming together as a community to learn about coding! Grab this chance to learn a new life skill that will spark new ideas.

This event is designed for those aged 50 and above.

Registration is required via GoLibrary portal (www.nlb.gov.sg/golibrary) or at all libraries' eKiosks. If you need help with registration, please visit our public libraries.

Date: 28/10/2017, Saturday
Time: 11am - 12pm

Receive a goodie bag when you join us at the event!
(F&B voucher inside)

Organised by:

National Library Board
Singapore

Supported by:

